

Brief Questions in “Brave New World”

Writer: Aldous Huxley | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Brief Questions in “Brave New World”

- What is the theme of Brave New World?

Ans:

The novel satirizes modern values, showing a future world where social and moral trends are taken to extremes.

- What is the setting of Brave New World?

Ans:

It is set in the year A.F. 632, meaning 632 years after Henry Ford’s first Model T car.

- What does the World State refer to?

Ans:

It refers to the powerful global government imagined by Huxley.

- When and where does the story take place?

Ans

: The story happens in the Central London Hatchery and Conditioning Centre in A.F. 632.

- Who is the ‘God’ of the World State society?

Ans

: Mustapha Mond, called “His Fordship,” is the godlike leader of the World State.

- What is the Neo-Pavlovian process?

Ans:

Babies are shocked when they touch books or flowers to make them fear beauty and knowledge.

- How was Soma invented?

Ans:

Scientists created Soma as a perfect drug to replace alcohol and painkillers.

- Who is Lenina Crowne?

Ans:

Lenina is a vaccination worker at the Hatchery and loved by Bernard and John.

- Who is Linda?

Ans:

Linda is John's mother, a Beta-minus woman once loved by the Director.

- What kind of man is Mustapha Mond?

Ans:

He is a wise but hypocritical ruler who hides truth to control society.

- How does John the Savage die?

Ans:

John kills himself out of guilt after giving in to worldly pleasures.

- How could the novel's tragic ending have been avoided?

Ans:

It could be avoided if Mustapha Mond let John go to the islands.

- How did Linda die?

Ans:

She died from taking too much Soma, with John beside her.

- What is Alpha-plus?

Ans:

It is the highest caste in the World State society.

- Who is Mustapha Mond?

Ans

: He is the World Controller for Western Europe and one of ten rulers.

- Name two female characters in Brave New World.

Ans:

Lenina Crowne and Fanny Crowne.

- Why is Henry Ford an idol of the World State?

Ans:

He is worshipped for inventing modern industrial production methods.

- How does Mustapha Mond begin his lecture?

Ans:

He starts with Ford's quote, "History is bunk."

- What kind of novel is Brave New World?

Ans:

It is a dystopian or anti-utopian novel criticizing modern life.

- What is Soma in the novel?

Ans:

It is a pleasure drug that brings happiness without pain or aftereffects.

- What is the motto of the World State?

Ans:

"Community, Identity, Stability."

- Why and how does John do penance?

Ans:

Feeling guilty for his mother's death, he whips himself in punishment.

- What is the function of Soma?

Ans:

It removes pain and sorrow, giving people false happiness.

- How was John the Savage born?

Ans:

He was born naturally to Linda and the Director on the Savage Reservation.

- What kind of world is shown in Brave New World?

Ans:

A world without emotion, religion, or morals, ruled by science and control.

- Who is the 'God' of the World State society?

Ans:

Mustapha Mond, known as "His Fordship."

- What is the Neo-Pavlovian process?

Ans:

It conditions infants through fear to shape their future behaviour.