

Of Love Brief Questions

Writer: Francis Bacon | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Of Love Brief Questions

Who was Epicurus? (NU. 2018, 21) ☆☆☆

Ans: Epicurus was an ancient Greek philosopher (342 B.C. - 270 B.C.) who believed that the ultimate good in life lies in pleasure.

What types of love are mentioned by Bacon in his essay 'Of Love'? (NU. 2016, 20, 22) ☆☆☆

Ans: There are three types of love: nuptial love, friendly love, and wanton love.

What are "Sirens" and "Furies"? (NU. 2020) ☆☆☆

Ans: In Greek mythology, a siren is a creature that is part woman and part bird. Sirens sang beautiful songs to trick sailors, causing them to crash their ships. The Furies are goddesses with snakes for hair. There are usually three of them, and they chase and punish people who have done very bad things and have not been punished yet.

How many kinds of love are mentioned by Bacon in "Of Love"? (NU. 2014)

Ans: Three types,

Nuptial love

Friendly love and

Wanton love.

What is the difference between a proud man and a lover?

Ans: A lover is more proud than a proud man.