

Cat in the Rain Quotaions

Writer: Ernest Hemingway | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

"Only two Americans stopping at the hotel." (Narrator) Explanation: The narrator tells us that the hotel has only two American guests. This detail shows that the couple is far away from their home country and does not know anyone around them.

"Only two Americans stopping at the hotel." (Narrator)

Explanation: The narrator tells us that the hotel has only two American guests. This detail shows that the couple is far away from their home country and does not know anyone around them.

"I'm going down and get that kitty." (American Wife)

Explanation: The American wife decides to go down on her own to bring the little cat hiding under the table. This shows her caring nature and her need to hold something soft and loving.

"Oh, shut up and get something to read." (George)

Explanation: George rudely tells his wife to stop talking and read something. His reaction shows his irritation and emotional distance. He does not want to hear her feelings.

"Padrone made her feel very small and at the same time really important." (Narrator)

Explanation: The hotel-keeper treats her with deep respect. His gentle behavior makes her feel humble, yet valued. He notices her feelings, something her husband fails to do.

"Oh, I wanted it so much. I wanted that poor kitty." (American Wife)

Explanation: The American wife expresses her deep desire for the small, helpless cat. Her strong wish shows her emotional emptiness and longing for something to love and protect.

"I want to have a kitty to sit on my lap." (American Wife)

Explanation: She wants a cat that will sit on her lap and give her a sense of comfort, closeness, and warmth. This desire shows her need for affection.

"I get so tired of looking like a boy." (American Wife)

Explanation: The American wife is unhappy with her short hair because it makes her feel less feminine. She wants long hair to express her identity and womanhood.

LxNotes