

I, Too, Sing America Quotations

Writer: Langston Hughes | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Important Quotes

"I, too, sing America."

Exp:

The speaker says he is also a part of America. He, too, shares in the nation's dreams and hopes. It means Black people are equal citizens of America.

"I am the darker brother."

Exp:

The speaker calls himself the darker brother to show he belongs to the same nation — America. The word "brother" means unity and equality. It reminds us that skin color should not divide people.

"They send me to eat in the kitchen

When company comes."

Exp:

The speaker is treated unfairly and kept away from others because of his color. It shows racial discrimination in society.

"Tomorrow,

I'll be at the table

When company comes."

Exp:

The speaker does not lose hope. He dreams of a better future where he will be treated equally. "Tomorrow" means a new day of justice and freedom.

"I, too, am America."

Exp:

The poem ends proudly with this line. The speaker says that he and all Black people are part of America's identity. This line shows unity, pride, and the demand for equality.

LxNotes