Spiritual Awakening: The theme of this poem is about waking up from darkness and coming back to truth and goodness. The poem shows a wise poet (called the Bard) who can see the past, present, and future. He is like a prophet who speaks for God. He calls the human soul and the Earth to wake up. He says people have lost their way (goodness) and must return to the right path. The world is full of beauty, but that beauty will not last forever. Morning is coming, and there is still time to change. The poet wants people to open their eyes, leave behind lies and sin. He wants them to follow the light of truth and love before it's too late.
