Evening

: Evening symbolizes the tranquil and serene moments in nature. It represents a time of reflection and spiritual connection with the natural world.

Child: The child in the poem symbolizes innocence and purity.

Sea: The sea is a symbol of vastness and eternity. It represents the timeless beauty of nature and the connection between the natural world and the human soul.

Calmness: The calmness of the evening symbolizes the soothing and restorative power of nature. It contrasts with the hustle and bustle of daily life.

Imagery:

The poem is rich in sensory imagery, evoking the serene atmosphere of the evening with phrases like "beauteous evening," "calm and free,".

Symbolism: The evening and the sea can be seen as symbolic of the beauty and tranquillity of nature, which contrasts with the restrictions of human life.

Personification: Wordsworth personifies the evening as a being that can hear, bless, and see. This personification creates a connection between the natural world and the speaker.

Metaphor: The poem employs metaphors to convey deeper meanings. "The holy time is quiet as a Nun" likens the evening to the peacefulness of a nun's life, emphasizing its spiritual and tranquil nature.
