

London key Facts

Writer: William Blake | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Title: London

Author: William Blake (1757-1827)

Title of Author: Precursor of Romanticism

Year Published: 1794

Collection Name: "Songs of Experience"

Genre: Poetry

Tone: Melancholic and sorrowful

Point of View: First person

Stanza and Lines Number: The poem consists of four stanzas, each containing four lines.

Rhyme Scheme: The rhyme scheme varies throughout the poem, but generally follows an ABAB pattern.

Setting: The poem is set in the city of London during the late 18th century.