

Mowing Literary Device

Writer: Robert Frost | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Symbols

Scythe : The scythe in “Mowing” is an important symbol. It stands for honest, hard work and the connection between humans and nature. As the poet cuts the grass, the scythe’s whisper seems to speak the truth of life — that real beauty and peace come from simple, sincere effort, not from magical or lazy dreams.