

"Ode on a Grecian Urn" Quotes

Writer: John Keats | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

"Thou still unravish'd bride of quietness, hou foster-child of silence and slow time,"

Explanation:

In these lines, the speaker addresses the Grecian urn as an untouched symbol of serenity and timelessness.

"Heard melodies are sweet, but those unheard Are sweeter;"

Explanation

: In this line, Keats suggests that the beauty of imagined or unexperienced pleasures is even greater than those we've encountered.

*"She cannot fade, though thou hast not thy bliss,
For ever wilt thou love, and she be fair!"*

Explanation:

In these lines, the speaker is highlighting the timeless beauty of the scene depicted on the urn. It suggests that the beauty of the urn's subject, a woman, will never fade, and the love for her will stay forever.

"Beauty is truth, truth beauty,—that is all Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know."

Explanation

: In this line, the speaker suggests that beauty and truth are interconnected and that understanding this connection is essential in life.

LxNotes