

Of Plantation Quotations

Writer: Francis Bacon | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

"Plantations are amongst ancient, primitive, and heroical works."

Exp:

It means starting colonies is an old, brave, and important task. They help build strong nations.

"Planting of countries, is like planting of woods; "

Experience shows that making a colony takes time and patience, much like growing a forest. Both need care and planning.

"It is a shameful and unblessed thing, to take the scum of people, and wicked condemned men, to be the people with whom you plant."

Exp:

It is wrong to send criminals or bad people to start a colony. They may spoil the new place.

"For government; let it be in the hands of one, assisted with some counsel."

Exp:

The colony should have one strong leader with a few good advisors. This keeps control and order.
