

Sir Roger in Love Quotations

Writer: Joseph Addison | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

"She is beautiful beyond the race of women."

Exp:

Sir Roger exaggerates the widow's beauty as greater than all other women.

"She was born for the destruction of all who behold her."

Exp:

Here, the widow's beauty is compared to a force that "destroys" men's hearts.

"She is as inimitable to all women as she is inaccessible to all men."

Exp:

She is so excellent that no one can equal her, and she is impossible to reach.

"I have been fool enough to carve her name on the bark of several of these trees."

Exp:

Sir Roger admits he acts foolishly because of his strong love.
