"Whose woods these are I think I know.

His house is in the village though;"

Exp:

"The woods are lovely, dark and deep,

But I have promises to keep,

And miles to go before I sleep,

And miles to go before I sleep."

Exp:

The poet loves the quiet and beauty of the woods, but he remembers his duties and responsibilities in life.

"Miles to go before I sleep"

means he must complete his tasks before taking rest or before death.
