

The Caretaker Key Facts

Writer: Harold Pinter | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

The Caretaker is a three-act drama written by Harold Pinter. Though it was the sixth of his major stage and television works, this psychological exploration of power dynamics, loyalty, innocence, and corruption—centered on two brothers and a tramp—marked Pinter's first major commercial success. Look at the key facts of the drama to get a quick conception.

Writer: Harold Pinter (1930-2008).

Original Title: The Caretaker.

Genre: Dark Comedy/Tragicomedy.

Published date: 1960

Number of acts: Three

Setting: Time Setting: 1950s

Place Setting: A house in west London.