

The Force that through the Green Fuse Drives the Flower

Quotes

Writer: Dylan Thomas | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Quotations

- Quote: "The force that through the green fuse drives the flower / Drives my green age."
Speaker: The Poet (Dylan Thomas) Stanza: 1 Explanation: The poet says that the same natural power which gives life to flowers also gives life to him. It shows that man and nature are connected through one life force.
- Quote: "That blasts the roots of trees / Is my destroyer." Speaker: The Poet Stanza: 1
Explanation: The poet understands that the same power which gives life also brings death. The energy that helps trees to grow will also destroy them — just as life leads to death.
- Quote: "The force that drives the water through the rocks / Drives my red blood."
Speaker: The Poet Stanza: 2 Explanation: The poet compares the flowing of water through rocks with the flow of blood in his veins. It means the same energy works in both nature and human life.
- Quote: "The hand that whirls the water in the pool / Stirs the quicksand." Speaker: The Poet Stanza: 3 Explanation: The poet says that the same "hand" or natural force that moves the water also creates death and danger. Life and destruction come from the same source.
- Quote: "And I am dumb to tell the lover's tomb / How at my sheet goes the same crooked worm." Speaker: The Poet Stanza: 5 Explanation: The poet realizes that the same force giving him life will also cause his death. The "crooked worm" represents decay after death, showing that all living beings share the same fate.