

The Lake Isle of Innisfree Quotes

Writer: William Butler Yeats | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Quotes

"I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,"

Explanation:

The speaker says he will get up and go to the peaceful island of Innisfree. It shows his strong wish to leave the busy city and find calm.

"And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made:"

Explanation:

He imagines building a small house made of clay and sticks. This shows his desire for a simple, natural life.

"Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honeybee,"

Explanation:

He wants to grow beans and keep bees. This shows he wants to live close to nature and be self-sufficient.

"And live alone in the bee-loud glade."

Explanation:

He wants to live alone where the buzzing bees make a peaceful sound. This shows his wish for quiet and solitude.

"And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,"

Explanation:

He believes he will find peace on the island. Peace will come gently and slowly like morning dew.

“And evening full of the linnet’s wings.”

Explanation:

In the evening, the air is full of the fluttering wings of linnet birds. It shows a peaceful natural scene.

“While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,”

“I hear it in the deep heart’s core.”

Explanation:

Though the speaker is now in the grey city streets, he still hears the peaceful sounds in his heart. The peaceful sounds of the lake and nature live deep inside his heart, even when he is far away.