Quotes

"Night after night

I expected her (the skunk) like a visitor."

Exp:

The poet waits for the skunk every night as if she is a special guest. It shows his loneliness and how the skunk's presence reminds him of his wife.

"After eleven years i was composing

Love-letters again..."

Exp:

The poet feels love again for his wife, even after many years of marriage. His memories and the skunk's presence make him write love letters, just like in the early days of their relationship.

"And there she was, the intent and glamorous,

Ordinary, mysterious skunk"

Exp:

The poet sees the skunk as both simple and beautiful. It seems ordinary but also full of mystery — just like his wife. Through the skunk, he shows his love, attraction, and admiration for his wife.
