Writer: William Blake | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

"Tyger Tyger, burning bright,
In the forests of the night;
What immortal hand or eye,
Could frame thy fearful symmetry?"

Explanation:

This first stanza portrays the tiger as a powerful and fearful animal. The speaker is amazed to see the fearful beauty of the tiger. He wonders who made such a strong and dangerous animal? So, the tiger actually expresses God's power. The tiger represents the strong, powerful, and scary side of God.

"Did he who made the Lamb make thee?"

Explanation:

The speaker is asking if the same God who made the gentle, innocent lamb also made the fierce, dangerous tiger. It shows that God can also be fierce and dangerous. This line also suggests that good and bad things both exist in the world.
