

The Windhover Themes

Writer: Gerard Manley Hopkins | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

Spiritual Glory and Divine Beauty: The falcon represents Christ and God's glory. Its flight shows the power, beauty, and sacrifice of the divine. The poem teaches that God's presence is in nature's wonders.

Control and Mastery Over Life: The falcon's perfect control of its flight symbolizes strength, courage, and mastery over difficulties. It shows how one can face life's challenges with power and skill.

Struggle Leading to Triumph: The poem highlights that hard work and effort, even when difficult, can create beauty and success. Like the plough shining after hard work, struggle can bring glory and joy.
