Thyrsis Character

Writer: Alfred Lord Tennyson | Generated: Jan 26, 2026

---

The Speaker: The speaker is a young man. He thinks about his dead friend. He talks about memories and nature.

Thyrsis: Thyrsis is the dead friend. His real name is Arthur Hugh Clough. Arnold calls him Thyrsis to show respect.

The Scholar-Gipsy: The Scholar-Gipsy is from another poem. He is a symbol of truth and freedom. He is not a real person here.
